

You Are Beautiful

Watch the sun go by
It's plain to see
Everything in sight
Reminding me
That You are in my life
Holding me
When I can't see the light
You burn it brighter

Every breath I take
You've given me
I will praise Your name
Lift it high above these clouds that hang
I'll cast my burden
At your feet
In Your name

CHORUS

You are Beautiful, Our Emmanuel
Every knee should bow
At the sound of Your name
You are Beautiful, Every Miracle
Let our anthem ring
Holy in the highest
We shall never cease to say
You are Beautiful

Underneath your wings
You cover me
When I am frail and weak
You carry me
When I fall to my knees
I know that You're the wind
That carried me
You take me where I am, Invite me in

The wind cries out
The trees will bow
Our hearts will sing
You are beautiful
Our Immanuel
You are everything, our God, and more
